Tales OF TWO CITIES

By STEVE KALAGIAN

NEED WORKERS

An appeal comes today from the Red Cross for more volunteer workers to aid veterans at the Norco hospital. While all kinds of assistance are needed, there is a special need for the following:

Gray Lady service—both men and women.

Motor Service needs more drivers.

Teachers for the arts and skills—such as ceramics, leather craft, metal work, bead work, fly-tying, etc.

Party hostesses between the ages of 18-25 one evening a week.

Your willingness to help should be made known before Sept. 28 since the two days of training required will be held Sept. 29 and Oct. 1. Get in touch with Mrs. Casteel at 623-379 or at the Upland Red Cross chapter.

NEED URGENT

The appeal above indicates that the need is urgent. If you can spare the time, it will mean a lot to the veterans whose days begin and end at the Norco hospital.

REGISTER

Tomorrow is the last day to register for the Nov. 2 general election. Rather than join the usual crowd of the "Last-Minuters," take a few minutes tonight to register. You can do this in the evenings at Upland justice court, 421 Eighth avenue, or with Mrs. Adelaide Plum, 484 North Second avenue. Remember, if you don't register, you can't vote and if you don't vote, you just don't count at all.

CHEST QUOTA

Although the demands have been greater by various organizations this year, the Upland Community Chest council at its meeting last night was able to keep the quota the same as last year, $8,000.

This shows that the committee is interested in keeping the goal to a reasonable figure. We, in turn, can do our part by giving our contributions as soon as possible in order to make the work of the house-to-house solicitors that much easier. It's a worthy cause and deserves every bit of our support.

PRETTY FINE

We suspect that Mrs. B. M. Pace is going to be a very popular person these days in Upland. We have reference to the fact that after winning all those prizes at the Pomona fair for her canning, every woman in this area will be after her for the "big secret." Nice going, Mrs. Pace.

IT'S FOOTBALL

The big topic of conversation in all the coffee haunts is football, since all of the colleges and high schools start their grid schedule this weekend. Needless to say, the highest point of interest is the outlook for the two Chaffey teams. Well, we'll know better after this weekend.

Carnival Plans

Plans for the forthcoming Hallowe'en carnival planned by the Cucamonga Lions club are expected to be furthered tonight when carnival committee meets at the Haldeman House.

Chairman Jim Haldeman will be in charge.

WEATHER

UPLAND AND VICINITY — Generally clear this afternoon, tonight and Thursday. Temperatures: Highest yesterday 70, lowest 60. Today at 2 p.m., 74.

UPLAND POLICE

Plan Roundup Of Unvaccinated Dogs

A roundup of unlicensed and unvaccinated dogs is slated to start in Upland tomorrow.

Officer Alvin C. Sinning, city license inspector, will head the drive and will have the assistance of all department officers in corraling the strays, Police Chief Eugene L. Mueller said today.

All dogs picked up will be taken to the new pound at the city yards and held for 72 hours. If unclaimed, they will be disposed of.

A new city ordinance this year requires all dog owners to have rabies vaccination certificates for their animals before a license can be issued.

The campaign is being conducted, Chief Mueller said, in the interests of public health and safety. He added that the new law will be strictly enforced.

Upland may become the first city in the United States to have police department-sponsored dog training classes.

The chief made than observation in announcing that the department is joining the city recreation department in sponsoring a canine "school".

All junior high school and high school students with dogs over six months of age are eligible to enter their pets for training. In charge of the classes will be Bill Koehler, local kennel owner and veteran dog trainer.

The school is expected to be held on Saturday mornings. It will start in the very near future and continue for eight weeks.

Training given the animals will be similar to that given "war dogs" by the U. S. army.

JUNIOR HIGH

Plan Emphasis On Reading

Special emphasis will be laid this semester in the seventh and eighth grades of the Upland Junior High school on the development of reading skills.

This was announced today by Harold W. Cook, district superintendent, who said that considerable time would be spent dealing with the problems of reading during the current school year.

Teaching aids in this course will include the textbook and workbook of the Scott-Foresman Basic Reading program. Author of the book is Dr. William S. Gray, professor of education at the University of Chicago. The series uses many devices to improve the reading performance, such as, word-attack skills, vocabulary building and phonetics.

In commenting on the program, Mr. Cook said, "The teaching of reading, while usually associated with the program of the elementary school, is also rightly the business of not only the junior high school but the senior high school as well."

The installation of the formal reading program in the seventh and eighth grades will mean that less time will be spent in the field of literature and literature appreciation, Mr. Cook added.

Edward J. Phippin will be in charge of the program in the seventh grade and Wilson R. Stone in the eighth.

Guardsmen May Apply for West Point by Exams

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California National Guardsmen will be given a chance to compete for West Point appointments, it was announced today.

The adjutant general's office said preliminary examinations will be given to Guardsmen Nov. 20 and 21 at the San Francisco Armory and the Los Angeles Armory.

The top six men will be named by Governor Warren to compete in the March 1, 1949 entrance examinations for West Point. Candidates must be between the ages of 19 and 21.

Firm Fined in 'Trust' Action

NEW YORK, (AP) — Federal Judge Edward A. Conger today imposed fines totaling $152,000 against the Brake Lining Manufacturers Association, Inc., of New York, 17 corporate members and nine individual officials.

The action was taken after they withdrew innocent pleas and pleaded no contest to three criminal anti-trust indictments.

In addition to the fines, the association was ordered dissolved and the defendants agreed to abandon the alleged illegal practices charged in the indictments.

The indictments charged that the defendants had entered into three separate conspiracies to fix prices, discounts, classifications of customers and terms and conditions of sales on replacement brake linings and clutch facings.

J. Francis Hayden, chief of the anti-trust division of the department of justice in New York City, said the three cases involved a nationwide industry, 96 per cent of which operated under a controlled price structure affecting all users of automobiles, trucks and industrial equipment.

Growers To Form District

J. J. Honus, Redlands, executive secretary of the California Citrus Producers association, will be the principal speaker tomorrow night when a district organizational meeting is held at Chaffey's Merton E. Hill auditorium, starting at 7:30.

Purpose of the gathering is to form a new CCPA district, the thirteenth in the state, covering Upland, Ontario, Cucamonga and Alta Loma. All citrus growers are urged to attend.

History of the organization, and a statement of the purposes for which it has been formed will be presented.

Airways Dispute To Be Arbitrated

NEW YORK (AP)—Management and labor agreed today to re-submit to an impartial arbitrator a dispute over the alleged layoff of 50 radiomen by Pan-American World Airways several months ago, a company spokesman said.

The spokesman said Pan-American representatives and officials of the flight radio officers section of the CIO Transport Workers union would meet with Frank M. Swacker, an impartial arbitrator, later today.

Army To Induct 15,000 in December

WASHINGTON (AP)—The defense department said today it has asked selective service to provide 15,000 draftees for the army in December. This is an increase of 5,000 over the first call for November.

The increase is in line with a previous announcement that monthly quotas would start at about 10,000 and rise to about 30,000 by next year as the army builds toward its authorized strength of 870,000.

The air force and navy are not asking for draftees. They are relying on volunteer recruiting.

The army has notified selective service to begin giving pre-induction physical examinations on Oct. 4 to registrants who have been found otherwise acceptable for induction.

Russ Hurl Threat to Quit United Nations

Soviet Minister Blasts Plan To Broaden Council

PARIS (AP)—Andrei A. Vishinsky declared today "the United Nations may become the disunited nations if the policies of certain countries are followed".

The Soviet deputy foreign minister unleashed his blast at Argentina in the powerful steering committee. He spoke in opposition to an Argentine proposal to admit to membership all nations which had received seven votes of the security council. Russia has vetoed five such membership applications.

The seating of the Russian delegate and the representative of Poland on the steering committee through their elections as vice-presidents of the assembly was reported to have averted a serious clash in the one-day-old assembly session just a short time before.

"If you want to save the United Nations, do not attack the charter," Vishinsky asserted. "Do not try to undermine the United Nations.. The United Nations may become the disunited nations if the policies of certain countries are followed."

The charter requires that all the Big Five must approve applications for membership.

Berlin Plan Ready--Bevin

LONDON (AP) — The United States, Britain and France are in "absolute agreement" on a policy to be pursued jointly if the Moscow talks over Berlin fail, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin declared today.

Referring to talks at the Kremlin by the Western envoys with Russian Prime Minister Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov, Bevin told an expectant House of Commons:

"I have to disappoint you. The stage is not yet reached which makes it possible to make a release.

"There have been rumors of disagreement between the three Western powers. Not only are we in absolute agreement over our Berlin policy, but also as to the policy we will jointly pursue if that fails.

"I am not saying by that that we are committed to war.

"We have not reached that stage yet.

"We have made provision at least to save Berlin from the worst effects of those who thought out this dastardly scheme (the blockade) and who thought by this means to put pressure on the Western Allies who stood with them in the war.

"It is a poor reward so soon afterwards."

WOMEN ARE WEAKER SEX IN BAKING

POMONA (AP) — It's official. Women ARE the weaker sex.

The cake baking contest was held at Los Angeles county fair yesterday. Three men made a clean sweep of the blue ribbons.

Guy M. Davis, Sr., Hollywood postman, whipped up a luscious fruit cake that topped the open light cake division.

His son, Guy, Jr., turned out a sponge cake that won in a walk in the men's division.

And best cake in the entire fair, women judges decided, was a sunshine item concocted by Fred C. Holtz of Pomona.

OIL STRIKE

See Gasoline Shortages on Pacific Coast

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gasoline shortages along the entire Pacific Coast are likely soon as a result of the CIO oil workers strike, warns Robert P. O'Brien, California oil administrater.

As the walkout entered its 19th day, O'Brien, citing increasing transportation and supply difficulties, requested local officials to promote rationing. He said restrictions have been recommended for other western states.

Max W. Ball, federal oil and gas coordinator conferring here with oil firm representatives, said if the strike continues, it will be felt throughout the entire country. He said it will create a shortage of fuel oils this winter.

Negotiations were resumed by Union and Standard in Southern California and by Shell in San Francisco. Other talks were scheduled today with Richfield, and Friday with Texaco.

About 200 strikers gathered yesterday at Union Oil Co's. Wilmington refinery, but there was no violence. Only two pickets were placed at the main entrance to the plant.

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sacramento police were staying away today from the strike-bound bulk plants of oil companies, but are ready to move in "immediately if trouble develops," Police Chief James Hicks reported.

Hicks said he had been contacted by officials of the struck companies about pickets around the plants, but added:

"We are keeping no policemen at the scene, as that would only invite trouble."

Florida Citrus Belt Threatened By Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A drenching hurricane, its 100-mile-an-hour winds still intact, moved over Lake Okeechobee in south central Florida today and aimed for the state's rich citrus belt.

Two persons have died and many have suffered minor injuries in the big storm, which blasted the Florida Keys with 160-mile gusts yesterday and pounced on Miami last night.

Heavy gales and rain still battered the Keys and Miami today.

The center of the storm is expected to pass into the Atlantic tonight in the vicinity of Melbourne, 160 miles north of Miami.

The hurricane eye passed close to the sugar-cane growing region at Clewiston on the lake shore.

Lake Okeechobee is the second largest fresh water lake entirely within the United States. A great hurricane in 1928 caused it to overflow its banks and drown about 2,500 laborers engaged in planting vegetables in the winter "salad bowl" of the nation.

Communications still were out today with Key West, where President Truman has his "Little White House"; Everglades City, 70 miles west of Miami, and Clewiston.

A Red Cross survey showed 8,300 persons stayed last night in Miami's shelters.

Between 700 and 1,000 refugees from Highlands county, in the central part of the state, found haven in the little citrus town of Sebring.

Vote Signup Deadline Near

Unregistered voters who don't sign up today or tomorrow will be unable to cast ballots in the Nov. 2 general election.

That reminder was issued today by Walter V. Combs, county vote registrar.

Mr. Coombs made a couple of other announcements as well. One is that voter registrations in the county stand at an all-time high of 114,549 persons as of yesterday.

Another was that Democrats continued to outnumber Republicans on the registration rolls by roughly 56 per cent to 39 per cent (minority parties claim the rest).

Right now there are 64,101 Democrats on the rolls and 44,333 Republicans. That's roughly the same percentage as in the last general election of 1946.

Registrars here are Judge Fred H. Jacobs, 421 Eighth avenue; Mrs. Adelaide Plum, Los Olivos Community building (484 North Second avenue, evenings); Mrs. Helen Bessant, Upland chamber of commerce, and J. A. Mooney, 125 Parkside.

Persons who have not previously registered, or who have moved since their last registration, or who have become disqualified for any other reason are urged to sign up.

County Draft Registrants Number 13,000

More than 13,000 young men in the county signed up for peacetime selective service in the registration period which ended last Saturday.

That was indicated today, registration officials revealed in San Bernardino. The exact count recorded to date is 12,938. However, this is not complete, with several hundred more names expected to come in.

The West End contributed something like one-fifth of the county total, with 2,458 registered at Chaffey.

About one registrant in four was considered a prime draft eligible—meaning he's not a veteran, and either unmarried or childless. This group, from which the first draftees are sure to be called, numbers 3,925 in the county.

Stag Slated

The Cucamonga Service club's annual stag party is scheduled to be held Monday night at the Haldeman House, President Paul Balding announces.

The affair is expected to attract more than 100 persons.

Solicitations To Begin After Luncheon Oct. 11

Reach Decisions At Meeting

Upland's 1948 Community chest quota is $8000, the same as last year. The fund campaign is slated to get underway Oct. 1 when appeal letters will be mailed. House-to-house solicitations start Oct. 11 and close Oct. 23.

Those were decisions reached last night at a meeting of Chest leaders and organizational representatives held at city hall. Chairman Norman S. Lawson presided.

The budget was presented by Chairman Howard N. Mason and adopted unanimously. The breakdown is as follows:

Girl Scouts	$3,150.00
Boy Scouts	2,000.00
Children's Hospital	944.54
Jr. Welfare	800.00
Sick Baby Fund	400.00
Campers Fund	300.00
Overhead	405.56
Total	$8,000.00

These figures, Mr. Mason explained, were finally adopted after a series of conferences between the budget committee and organization representatives during the summer months.

Although the total figure is the same as last year, individual organizational budgeting differs in most cases.

Because of increased activities and numbers of participants, both the Upland Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts have received increased budgets.

The Girl Scouts were granted a $150 increase and the Boy Scouts $250.

Children's Hospital, Hollywood, to which many sick children are sent, received a major jump. Their allotment last year was $181.30, and this year $944.54. The figure, chect officials explained, represents the actual cost of care for local children at the hospital during 1947.

The chest member organizations receive the same this year as last. These are the Sick Baby Fund ($400) and the Campers Fund ($300). Money from the latter goes to the county council of social agencies and is used to send local children to summer camps.

The Junior Welfare league's share of the total is $100 less this year.. They received $900 in 1947 and $800 this year.

One major item of last year is not on this year's budget. That is the United Nations War Relief fund, which received $1000 in 1947.

After discussion last night, chest members voted to coordinate the local drive publicity with that of the national drive opening Oct. 1.

However, John Baumgartner, solicitation committee chairman, and his corps of workers will not take the field until after a "kick-off" luncheon Oct. 11.

"We feel sure that a generous response on the part of the public will enable us to close the campaign by Oct. 23," Mr. Lawson said.

One change in the chest chairmanships was announced. Due to the press of business, P. H. McQuillen has resigned as publicity chairman. He was replaced by Ernest R. Camfield.

After the general meeting last night, the chest executive committee held a brief session. Present at that meeting were Mr. Lawson, Earl Hawthorne, Harry Dier, Harland Horak Mrs. C. K. Valiton, Mrs. Leslie Hoag, Mrs. Earl Johnson, Mrs. W. H. Wass and Ada Cooper.

CANDIDATES DISPUTE MAJOR RESOURCES OF NATION; WARREN TALKS TO MIDWEST FARMERS

By The Associated Press

The nation's national resources were subjects of hot dispute today among all four top Democratic and Republican candidates.

While President Truman and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey jousted over western reclamation projects, their running mates hauled out party records on soil conservation and other farm problems in a quickening drive for November votes.

Mr. Truman, speaking last night in Salt Lake City, said the Democrats stand for "rapid and uninterrupted development" of a west that has been "crudely and wickedly cheated" by a power lobby working through the GOP-controlled congress.

Declaring that the Republicans

ENROUTE WITH WARREN TO LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren put up to the farming midwest today a proposal to place the nation's farm problems on a non-political basis.

An overflow Republican gathering in St. Louis last night roared its approval when he said agriculture is not a "political issue," and ridiculed what he termed President Truman's picturization of Republicans as "pitchfork conspirators."

Developing the non-partisan, national unity theme he expounded in Salt Lake City to launch his campaign, the Republican vice-presidential candidate asserted:

Mrs. Roy Brown, retired missionary to the Philippines Islands, was the guest speaker at the first meeting for the fall of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Upland Methodist Church.

Mrs. Brown stressed the number of things she had to be thankful for now that she is back in this country, as she was in a Japanese prison camp and was denied many of the things we have here. Many of the things she stressed are the things that we take just as a matter of course.

Remodeled Upland Church Slates Open House Sunday

Church of Christ Plans Dedicatory Service Sunday

Signalixing the completion of an extensive remodeling program of the church building, the Upland Church of Christ will hold a dedicatory service at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Lloyd E. Ellis, minister, announces.

The program will also mark the beginning of a series of gospel services at the church to be conducted by Dr. Frank Pack, Los Angeles.

Begun last April, the church remodeling program has been an extensive one.

Seating capacity of the auditorium has been doubled by removal of inside partitions, a new celotex ceiling has been installed and classrooms rearranged.

The church office has been moved to the north side of the building and the entire structure insulated with rock wool and completely redecorated.

A baptistery has been installed and is adorned by a very beautiful religious painting by Mrs. W. W. Pase, Los Angeles. New pews have been put in to complete the seating of the large auditorium.

This project was made possible, Mr. Ellis declared, through the cooperation of the entire church membership, who performed all the labor save for such specialized tasks as plumbing and inulating.

The elders, minister and members, both men and women, worked long hours to complete the remodeling job.

The public is cordially invited to attend the open house program, to see the new church appointments and to meet Dr. Pack who is to be heard each evening at 7:30 in a series of gospel sermons.

No admission charge or collections will be taken either Sunday afternoon or evening, Mr. Ellis said.

Wallace Party To Continue

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry A. Wallace said last night the Progressive party "is not going to go out in 1948," but indicated he did not expect personally to be a candidate in 1952.

Speaking at a $100-a-plate dinner of the Business Men for Wallace committee, he appealed to his audience to help bring out leadership he said the new party will need if it survives.

Wallace virtually bowed out as the party's 1952 candidate, saying he did not want the new party to be a one-man party like Theodore Roosevelt's Bull Moose and Robert M. LaFollette's progressive parties.

"This is not a party that depends on any personality," he said.

He and his campaign manager indicated they did not see eye-to-eye on some of the fine points of party strategy. The dinner was preliminary to Wallace's tomorrow departure on a national tour.

Warren Talks To Midwest Farmers

they can't honestly claim, a proprietorship over agriculture.

"Agriculture isn't a political issue. It's a vital element in our national life calling for consideration without partisanship. We can do it with both political parties working together."

The No. 2 Republican was given a roaring welcome to St. Louis. A storm of confetti and ticker tape showered down from St. Louis office buildings as the 50-car Warren motorcade traveled slowly from the station to hotel. Police estimated between 50,000 and 75,000 saw him along the line of march through the business district. A few partisan boos were heard above the applause.

Andrews, who was recently arrested by sheriff's deputies, was arraigned Friday. He is accused of passing the check last April 24. It was in the amount of $33.25 and was given in payment for some garden hose ordered delivered at what proved a fictitious address.

Truman, Dewey In Hot Dispute

offer "strangulation" for the west, he said that under the Harding, Coolidge and Hoover administrations "quick and greedy exploitation was the order of the day."

"Never before in history," the President said, "hod so much been wasted by so few."

After 12 years of Republican rule, he added, there were only 28 western reclamation projects in operation.

But after four Democratic administrations, Mr. Truman said, there are some 60 reclamation projects completed or underway in the west, and "Republican policy" is the only barrier to further development.

Dewey retorted in a Denver address that the Truman administration is pursuing "careless policies" in handling America's natural resources. He added:

"We have reached the stage in our country's development when to be careless is to gamble with our country's security and the future of a "brand new approach" to the saving of America's timber, oil, metals and other resources.

He promised that if he wins his White House bid he will set up an administration "which really believes in conservation . . . and development of our country for the future."

After citing specific plans for a "comprehensive national program of conservation" Dewey said he would insist that, in the development of these new programs, "no little supermen from Washington to be put in centralized control."

Russ Threaten U.N. Withdrawal

quickly ran into other snags.

Bulgaria and Yugoslavia protested against placing on the agenda the report of the Balkans commission investigating the Greek civil war.

Leading Arab delegates announced the Arab nations never would accept an independent Jewish state in Palestine, as recommended in the last report of Count Folke Bernadotte, the assassinated Palestine mediator. The United States and Britain have backed his report.

The western powers, meanwhile, gave the Soviet Union a week to agree on the Berlin situation before they take the issue to the United Nations, French sources said. The informants said the foreign ministers of Britain, France and the United States agreed on outlines of a note which may be sent to Moscow this week.

The Russian magazine New Times said in an article broadcast from Moscow that the United States was preparing to "subject the United Nations to a new test, stopping neither at causing serious damage to its prestige, nor even at risking its breakdown."

High U. N. sources expressed relief that Russia and Poland won places on the steering committee. A source close to President Herbert V. Evatt said a move had been reported underway to freeze the Russians out of committee chairmanships yesterday. If this had come about, Russia had been expected to reply with a blistering attack on the west.

With Poland and Russia, the delegates elected China, France, Britain, Mexico and the United States to vice-presidencies and concomitant memberships of the general (steering) committee. The other steering committee members are six chairmen of committees chosen yesterday and President Evatt, Australian deputy prime minister. Evatt is believed to have adjourned yesterday's meeting purposely after the chairmen were elected to parry a move to vote Russia out of the steering committee.

U.S. DOLLARS MAY BE GREEN BUT POPOVS WOULD RATHER HAVE FOOD

LOS ANGELES (AP)—American dollars may be green but they're not edible. So Yugoslavian heirs to a $100,000 estate have asked court here to convert some of that into food.

In an unusual petition filed yesterday, Fred W. Axe, executor of the estate of Dimitri Popov, made this request on behalf of the parents, Darjo and Ivan Popov, both in their eighties.

Axe said he was told by the Popovs that money is worthless to them in Belgrade because of the scarcity of food. The executor said they asked him to convert part of the estate into edibles.

The son, known as Ivan Dennis, died last May in Pasadena, leaving a fortune in stocks and bonds.

Superior Judge Newcomb Condee will hear the petition Oct. 15.

Navy Films Show How Cold Next War To Be

NEW YORK—The once fascinating project of peering into neglected nooks of the world has become fairly humdrum since the last war, largely because there isn't much territory left unscarred by tender messages from Kilroy. The average American broom closet will yield anything from a shrunken head to a Tibetan prayer-wheel, because Joe got around, and with it came an easy familiarity with everywhere.

There was, however, one vast spot—greater in size than a combined America and Europe—which eluded the GI hoofprint. The navy has just run up a document on it that I would like to recommend. It is a technicolored film of Admiral Richard E. Byrd's most recent penetration of the Antarctic, and may be a revelation to those who always thought of the north and south poles as a couple of flagstaffs sticking out of a snow hummock.

The film, called "The Secret Land", is as fascinating in its newness as the old magic lantern slides Martin Johnson used to fetch home from the cannibal isles, and twice as brilliant. It was shot in color by navy and coast guard photographers, and a smooth continuity will be released for general view around the last of October. There isn't any boy-meets-girl in it, or even Robert Mitchum, but it is as gripping in its way as another service classic, "Fighting Lady".

Among other things, it is a graphic argument against getting into a war with the Russians, if such a war is to be fought on a goose-pimpled terrain. I will rally to the colors any day against Mexico, Cuba, Fiji, Honolulu, or Hollywood, Calif., but I uncrave this polar stuff. It is asking too much of a fighting man to sweat from fear and then have to break off the icicles.

This is the coldest movie you ever saw. You cannot appreciate frostbite until you have seen it in technicolor—or the purple blush of a windgnawed nose, or the stately symmetry of ice-hung whiskers. They sent the good admiral, who has been suffering from psychic chilblains ever since I was a tot, back to Antarctica in 1946, the polite explanation was that the expedition aimed at surveying mineral wealth, charting unmapped territory. Chiefly, Byrd went back to carve our initials on the pole, against a day of global competition for the territory, and to find out what it takes to fight a subzero war. Say, against Russia.

He found out, all right. Navy and coast guard photogs shot so many pictures it'll take five years to develop and classify 'em. For 72 minutes of culled shots, you can watch a logistic problem that made a June picnic out of the Pacific and European campaigns. You could win a narrow-gauge war with less time and trouble than it took to keep Byrd and 4,000 men fed and defrosted. When you remember that we froze off a few thousand GI feet in the last one, just because of some absentmindedness on the part of one of our supply generals, the vast potential unpleasantness of a future conflict on icy terrain is appalling.

The Admiral's shutter-snappers established, beyond cavil, that there is plenty of snow, penguins, seals, ice, coal, and sundry other precious minerals in the frozen south. They established that any war, at any time, on similar shivery soil would be the most fantastically complicated joust in the history of man's ingrowing unpleasantness. They established that the great ice-rimmed wastelands are an inexhaustible treasure trove for the future. And I'll just tell you something.

So far as I am personally concerned, the penguins can keep it all. It's too far to travel to squabble over real estate, and that applies to its twin on the other side of the world, the Arctic. . I don't care how much gold they got, how much coal they got, how much uranium they got—I say leave it to the walruses.

So far as fighting a war on, over, or about a land like that—well, they say no germs can exist under such temperatures. That does it. If it ain't good enough for germs, it sure ain't good enough for me.

DOROTHY
THOMPSON

Why the Assassination of Count Bernadotte?

Count Folke Bernadotte was the second martyr to peace during this year. In January, the man whose name had become synonymous with no-violence (but was never awarded the Nobel peace prize) was murdered at a prayer meeting of his followers. The bullet was fired by a fanatical Hindu nationalist for whom India's liberation from the British was not enough. The British, who had often imprisoned Gandhi, had treated him—even under house arrest—with highest respect. It was from his own people that his death came.

Israel is a creation of the United Nations deriving its claim to legal existence from a United Nations decision made against the opposition of the whole Arab and Moslem world. Yet, according to official reports to the security council, the first shot to be fired against the United Nations as represented in the person of its Palestine mediator was not by an Arab but by an Israelite. For neither murder was single persons responsible. Gandhi's assassin represented a group who probably chose the assassin by lot; if a Sternist murdered Count Bernadotte the assassin acted by decision of the gang.

C. L. Sulzberger reported in the New York Times a conversation he recently had in Tel Aviv with a Sternist who candidly declared Sternist intentions to kill Count Bernadotte, as they had previously shot the British minister of state, Lord Moyne.

The Zionist terrorists (Stern gang and Irgun) are not negligible numbers. There are fully 20,000 of them, mostly young men and women. About one in 40 of the Palestine Jewish population—counting the old, infirm and children—belongs to one or the other of the terrorist groups.

They are armed and disciplined in terrorist tactics from sabotage to murder—in the Stern group by men who have learned in European communist undergrounds, in Irgun by former leaders of resistance movements. Their political ideology is half fascist, half communist. The spiritual founder of Irgun was Jabotinsky, now dead, founder of the Zionist-Revisionists, who was an ardent admirer of Mussolini, as was Abraham Stern.

These groups threaten the present Israel state. It is an open secret that Chaim Weizmann, president of Israel, has never set foot in Palestine since his election, but has remained in Geneva, because the government has not felt able to protect him against possible Arab assaults or the bullets of Sternist or Irgun terrorists who call him a "Petain".

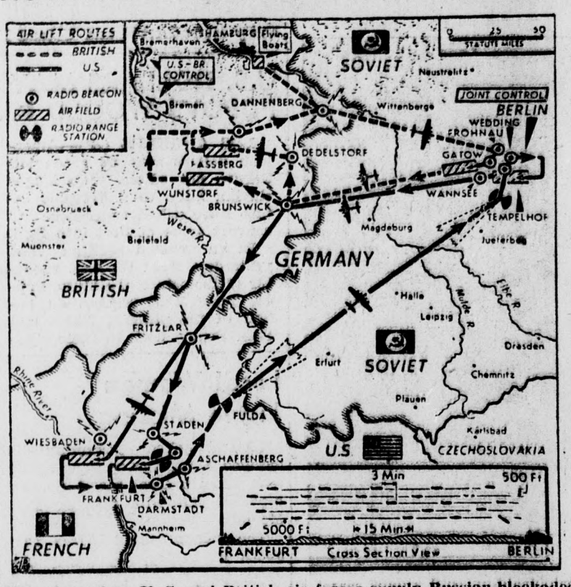

These gangs have never accepted the United Nations partition plan. They envision an All-Jewish Palestine and Transjordania. Knowledge of this increases Arab resistance by convincing them that partition would be an opening wedge for a vaster Jewish expansion. Among Palestinian Jews and throughout the world they have sympathizers who, while repudiating them publicly, justify them privately. The Israel government has been deterred from taking drastic steps against them by pressures within the government itself and upon it from abroad.

The question now is whether the Israel government will wipe out these gangs which, if left to flourish, will eventually overthrow the present rulers. The Israel government knows who the Sternists are. Correspondents have talked with their leaders in Palestine and in Europe. They had a delegation at the Wallace convention and hold a press conference without being repudiated by Mr. Wallace, though they believe in murder as an instrument of policy.

But the United Nations also must make up its mind either to enforce its Palestine decision or leave the middle east to chaos and war which the decision has contributed to stimulate. The partition plan would have to be enforced against both Arabs and radical Jewish nationalists. Count Bernadotte was not only a victim of the Sternists—he was the victim of a divided United Nations depending wholly on prestige for the enforcement of its decisions.

HOW THE BERLIN AIR LIFT WORKS

Map shows how U. S. and British air forces supply Russian-blockaded Berlin. Most U. S. planes use the southern corridor from Frankfurt to the capital city. Into it feed C-54 transports from Frankfurt's Rhein-Main airbase and C-47s from nearby Wiesbaden. All these planes land at Tempelhof, U. S.-operated airbase in Berlin. All British planes and some U. S. C-47c use the northern corridor to Berlin, running southeast from the Hamburg area and terminating at British-operated Gatow airfield in Berlin. British zone takeoff fields are at Fassberg and Wunstorf with flying boats basing at Hamburg and landing on Berlin's Havel lake. Once over Berlin, planes are guided to landing strips by radio instructions from airport control towers. After discharging their loads planes fly out of the Russian zone along central corridor toward Brunswick; then separate to fly to their respective bases. Inset at lower right shows how air traffic is spaced flying into Berlin. Each corridor is divided into several traffic lanes—each lane at a different altitude. In these lanes traffic is staggered to provide greatest possible distance between all planes. Craft are so spaced that they not only fly at least 15 minutes apart at each altitude level but at least three minutes in front or behind the nearest plane at any level.—AP Wirephoto.

NEW DRUG IS CURE FOR 'Q' FEVER

BERKELEY AP—The new drug aureomycin is described as showing great promise as a remedy for the strange "Q" fever.

Its effectiveness is mentioned in an article in the current issue of California Medicine, "Q Fever in Central and Northern California."

The article is by Dr. Edwin H. Lannette, director of the Viral and Rickettsial disease laboratory of the California state department of public health in Berkeley, and his associate, Dr. Gordon Meiklejohn.

It is mentioned only in passing as "currently being tested on patients in California and offering considerable promise." However, Dr. Lannette amplified this appraisal in a statement:

"From preliminary trials with human patients, I would say that aureomycin offers very good promise as a treatment. It has produced excellent results in animal tests and has been used to treat the disease in humans with very, very good results."

This newest drug of the antibiotic family, which includes penicillin and streptomycin, was discovered a little more than a year ago in a golden-hued mold from which it derived its "aureo" name.

Aureomycin was described as being effective not only against "Q" fever, but also against other rickettsial diseases such as scrub typhys and Rocky Mountain spotted fever.

Bet you didn't know...

Picked up some rather arresting facts about the Sunkist Advertising Department, largely from a talk that Russell Eller, Exchange Advertising Manager, gave the other day before the Exchange Board.

They show that the Advertising Department is really a group of departments, all designed to support Exchange sales by getting utmost value from the advertising.

Bet you didn't know...

—That the Advertising Department mailing lists include over 200,000 names, ranging from grocers to editors, educators, famous scientists. Names and addresses are on mailing plates, ready for instant use.

—That the promotion material distributed by the department includes over half a million sets of Sunkist Food Lessons requested each year by schools.

—That the Advertising Department through its Extractor Sales Division is engaged in the sale of five products: Sunkist Senior Juice Extractor, Sunkist Juicit, Sunkist Reamer, Lemon Sectionizer and Lemon Squeezer.

—That in planning Sunkist Navel, Valencia and Lemon advertising, the Advertising Department, in order to insure full consideration of plans by the Exchange Board and adequate time for preparation of the ads themselves, works from six to twelve months ahead.

—That while one section of the Department, the Dealer Service Division, is installing displays in grocery stores, another, the Nutrition Research Division, is developing research programs on citrus health values in nationally recognized research institutions.

That's not the half of it, of course. You can't imagine a department of more varied activities! And they all tie together! Every phase of the work has one all-important aim: to increase the demand for Exchange fruit. When you are an Exchange member, you get the benefit.

KISSING OK, BUT NOT IN CHURCH

ANGOLA, N. Y. AP — The "Hollywood embrace" at the conclusion of marriage ceremonies in church is "in bad taste," in the opinion of one Lutheran minister.

The Rev. Frank J. Bauer, 30, of nearby Olean told a pastoral conference of the Missouri Lutheran church yesterday that he still was "young enough to regard kissing favorably, within its legitimate bounds." But he added:

"Any public display of affection, particularly in the church, is in bad taste. There is no place in the liturgical warrant for the Hollywood embrace . . permitted in the church by many pastors.

"Nor does the minister who is tempted to kiss the bride have a liturgical, to say nothing of moral right."

Instead, said Mr. Bauer, a kiss on the cheek is preferable, "being illustrative of brotherly love rather than marital love."

Repeat of 1920? Cleveland Fans Wonder As Tribe Rallies After Injury To Black

CLEVELAND (AP) — Fate's most tragic touch—the mortal skulling of shortstop Ray Chapman — preceded the Cleveland Indians' drive to their only pennant, back in 1920. Another Cleveland catastrophe — the grave injury to pitcher Don Black—might conceivably have been the forerunner to its second championship, this year.

The surging Indians, coming down the stretch like Citation at his best, were in second place today, only a game behind the pace-setting Boston Red Sox, whom they meet tonight. Since the Black misfortune, Cleveland has won six games in succession.

Oddly the circumstances and events immediately following the two diamond disasters—28 years apart—were almost identical.

In 1920, as in 1948, the American league race roared into the final six weeks with three teams running neck and neck. Except for Chicago in place of Boston, the contending teams were the same.

On Aug. 16, 1920, the day Carl Mays, submarine pitcher of the New York Yankees, struck Chapman squarely on the head with a pitched ball and killed him, the Indians were tied with the White Sox for the league lead, a half game ahead of the third place Yankees.

Staggered by the tragedy to their star shortstop, the Indians lost their next three games and fell two lengths out of first place. It was the belief of most of the baseball world that Cleveland could not recover from that blow, and the pennant fight would be between the White Sox and Yankees the remainder of the way. On Aug. 23, a week after the death of Chapman, the Indians dropped back into third place, three games off the pace.

Then came the great Cleveland upsurge which brought that city its first flag. With Joey Sewell filling in valiantly at shortstop, in spite of his youth and inexperience, Cleveland braced wonderfully. On Sept. 1, the Indians fought themselves back into first place, and only once thereafter surrendered the lead for a couple of days.

It was a remarkable recovery from what appeared to be a knockout blow.

Almost the same situation prevailed this year. When Black collapsed at the plate on Sept. 13, after pitching two scoreless innings against the St. Louis Browns, and was rushed to the hospital with a brain hemorrhage, the Indians were in the midst of a seven-game winning streak. They had crept up to within two and a-half games of the league-leading Red Sox.

Cleveland lost that game and the next as Black was hovering between life and death. The Indians dropped four full games behind the Sox, and again, just as in 1920, hope was abandoned. Even Bill Veeck, the club's dynamic president, said: "Only a miracle can revive the Indians' pennant hopes."

Once again a courageous Cleveland club rallied and went on to capture six games in a row to cut Boston's first place margin to one game. A victory over the Red Sox tonight would enable the Indians to tie for the lead.

STASSEN HOPES PENN WILL BEAT 'EM ALL

HERSHEY, Pa. AP — Harold E. Stassen, new president of the University of Pennsylvania, and former governor of Minnesota, is not worried over his football allegiance this fall—Penn doesn't play the Gophers.

"Since Minnesota is not on our schedule, I have no inhibitions about wanting an unbeatable season," Stassen told the players at their training camp here yesterday.

Oaks Annex Disputed Tilt

(By The Associated Press)

Ever hear the story of how a team played a half inning and gained a game and a half, coming mighty close to clinching a pennant—all in one night?

Oakland went across the bay to San Francisco last night and stopped the Seals in the last half of the ninth inning to win the celebrated battle of the pine tar, 4-3.

Floyd Speer twirled the frame in place of Ralph Buxton, whose use of pine tar caused the rhubarb that led to the last-inning replay of the Aug. 14 game. Speer set the side down, 1-2-3, on only 10 pitches.

Then the Oaks donned their street clothes, sat in the stands and had a good laugh as they watched the Seals lose to Seattle, 6-5, in the regularly scheduled game.

This with a minimum of effort the Oaks jumped to two full games ahead of San Francisco, with only six games left for each club in the Coast league pennant scramble.

It was Seattle's Guy Fletcher who wielded the shutout brush against the Seals. He allowed seven hits, fanning five for his 16th win against 15 defeats.

The Suds virtually clinched fourth place and a playoff spot by the victory, which put them 4½ games ahead of fifth place Portland. The Beavers lost to Los Angeles, 4-2, with Cliff Aberson's two-run homer providing the decisive blow.

It was Aberson's 31st homer in 107 games. Dewey Adkins was the winner over Don Johnson. It was Adkins' 17th victory.

Mike Budnick pitched san Diego to an 8-3 verdict over Hollywood. The Padres maced three Star pitchers for 10 bingles.

BRAVES CAN CLINCH FIRST FLAG IN 34 YEARS TODAY; BOSOX-CLEVELAND CONTEST 'CRUCIAL'

(By The Associated Press)

The Boston Braves can clinch their first pennant in 34 years today. But the baseball spotlight will be centered on Cleveland, where the Indians tackle the Boston Red Sox with first place in the American league at stake.

Billy Southworth's Braves, who have had the National league pennant virtually sewed up for weeks, can mathematically win it today by beating the St. Louis Cardinals providing the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers bow to Pittsburgh.

The Braves virtually killed off the remaining pennant hopes of both the Cards and Dodgers yesterday, taking a twin bill from the Redbirds 11-3 to 4-0, while the Dodgers bowed, 12-11 and 6-3, to Pittsburgh.

The Braves now lead the Dodgers by seven and one-half games. Both teams have nine games left to play. The Cards are eight games back with 10 to go and a loss today will knock them out.

The battling means more in the American league. The Red Sox-Indian clash under the lights at Cleveland's municipal stadium.

The league-leading Red Sox are only a game in front of the runner-up Indians, who have won their last six starts. A Cleveland victory would put the two teams in a flat-footed tie for the lead. A Boston triumph would jump the Red Sox two games ahead with only eight games left to play for each team.

The Red Sox trounced the Detroit Tigers, 10-2, yesterday in the only game played in the American league. Lefty Mel Parnell, although rapped for 11 hits, coasted to his 14th victory. The Red Sox opened with two runs in the first inning and iced the decision with six more in the third.

Johnny Sain, the Braves' star righthander, and Rookie Vern Bickford, turned back the Cardinals on nine and four hits, respectively. Sain's victory was his 22nd—top mark in either league.

The Cards nicked Sain for two runs in the first inning but the Braves came back with one in their half and drove Red Munger to cover with four more in the second to win going away. The Braves clinched the nightcap triumph early, scoring three times in the opening frame to rout Lefty Howie Pollet.

Pittsburgh's 12-11 win over Brooklyn completed a game that began in Pittsburgh on Aug. 25 when a ninth inning protest by the Pirates was upheld.

The game was resumed with the Pirates at bat, three runs behind, two out, runners on first and third, Ed Bockman up with a 3-1 count and Carl Erskine pitching. Erskine walked Bockman to load the bases and Hank Behrman took over. Stan Rojek then broke up the game with a base-clearing double.

Last night's fight between world's champion Tony Zale and the Frenchman, Marcel Cerdan, for the middleweight title, that saw the Frenchman win via a t.k.o. in the twelfth round, must have startled the boxing fans no little. I know it startled me ($7.00 worth) and I know that I wasn't alone in this department.

The Tony Zale that we thought we knew never even entered the ring . . . the Tony Zale that twice k.o.'d the tough Rocky Graziano, never climbed through the ropes to meet Cerdan, who at the very best was a rough and weak-hitting boxer, but not any one-punch artist. (So once again we were wrong in our picks. . . . We'll put that $7.00 right back on Mr. Tony Zale if and when they ever fight again). Oh, well, that will take care of the surplus from last week's football games.

THIS AND THAT

Whatever happened to Joe Papac, last year's most underrated player on the Panther team? Last reports have him in the farming racket. . . . He'd make some school a mighty fine back. Clyde Francisco, now in his second year of Pantheritis, will show Upland lots of stuff this year, from his end spot. . . . He's rough, too. . . . It's amazing or foolish, the way that local fans think the Chaffey Panthers will wind up "tops" three years running. . . . We hope and pray that they will, but won't get our scrawny neck "out" until after the Panthers have a few games. . . . Truck Lindsey's Chaffey Tigers are meeting one of the strongest high school teams in Inglewood, year-in-and-year-out, they will meet all year. So what happens? The local "experts" are giving points and lots of them, that the Tigers knock off Inglewood Friday night . . . Frankly, it's a little early to be giving points, even on Cucamonga Tech meeting Chino Reserves . . . East L. A. J. C. that knocked off Glendale last week will have the advantage of a game under their belt, while, this will make the debut of the new coach, Mr. George Hobbs and the 1948 Chaffey Panthers . . . From the reports, L. A. was lucky (but quick) on a couple of Glendale fumbles, to win the game. . . . That shows at least L. A. isn't asleep and is aggressive. . . . Should be quite a ball game this coming Saturday night. We think: Chaffey 28, L. A. 14.

OEC Clubs Start Play This Weekend

Every Orange Empire conference school will see action this weekend, but only one contest pits league schools.

That's at Orange Coast where Coach Ray Rosso's club is entertaining Riverside Saturday night.

Friday will see four OEC clubs in action, all of them against non-loop foes. Santa Ana goes to Santa Monica; San Bernardino is at Taft; Mt. Sac inaugurates their new stadium by entertaining the Pomona college Sagehens, and Fullerton is at John Muir.

The latter contest will be played in Pasadena's Rose Bowl.

Chaffey meets East LAJC here Saturday night.

Containers made of stainless steel have a service life of about 14 years.

Tiger Opponents Rated Sharp; Line Said Light

Light, but lightning fast.

That's the Inglewood Sentinels of the Bay league against whom the Chaffey Panthers will initiate another season of footballing here this Friday night.

Coached by Doug Essick of U. S. C. fame, the Inglewooders will field a team sparked by a 145-pound sophomore quarterback named Joe Clark.

Clark was the sparkplug of an unbeaten "E" squad last year and is hailed as a standout, despite his lack of beef. Sharing backfield spot with him, according to advance dope, will be Clarence Strickland, a hard runner; Jim Fears, an end last year, and Roger Hyduke, a demon linebacker.

According to Sports Editor Mike Lowery of the Inglewood Daily News, Essick's forward wall runs strictly to small sizes. But these "midgets" have a way of growing up to man size before kickoff time, so we'll just have to wait and see.

Essick confesses to having a couple of ends with glue on their fingers in the persons of Jim Hayes (not Upland's Jimmy) and Ray Carver.

Friday's encounter will be the season opener for the Bay leaguers as it will for Chaffey.

The boys put on a squad game over there Friday, with the Blues winning out over the Whites, 14-6. Clark, pitching from his quarterback "T" spot, completed three of five tosses, one of them for a touchdown. The other score came on a seven-yard smash by halfback Lyle Goodwin.

With close defeats at the hands of Torrance, Long Beach Jordan and Santa Monica marring their record, the Inglewood club finished quite a way down the Bay loop ladder last year.

Hopes for a rise this season center on injections of new blood from the terrific "B's" of '47.

One thing seems certain, anyway. The visitors are going to be fast. Whether too fast for Truck Lindsey's beefy line is something we're going to find out on Friday evening.

Bill Stars At Arena

Gorgeous Billy Darnell, wrestling's "Leopard Boy" who holds the junior heavyweight wrestling title, will place his championship and his belt on the block Saturday night at the Pomona VFW arena when he faces one of the top challengers of the division, rugged Paavo Katonen, the Flying Finlander.

The title event tops a triple feature attraction which also features the powerful Zebra Kid, wrestling's most amazing and sensational performer of the century, and the famed "Golden Boy."

Zebra Kid, a 300-pound masked mystery man, will oppose Mike Mazurki, the ring and film star, while "Golden Boy" takes on ruthless Pierre La Sartes, the famed French Clutch, who became a legendary figure during the war as a member of the French underground.

DE YOUNG HURT, WILL MISS OREGON GAME

PALO ALTO AP — Coach Marchie Schwartz scheduled a full game scrimmage for his Stanford university Cardinals today, after they had appeared "not too sharp" in a short grid scrimmage yesterday.

Schwartz experimented with several new line combinations yesterday in an effort to plug weaknesses developed last Saturday, when the Red Birds won their first game in the last 10 starts.

Bruce Van Alstyne and Bill De Young, fullbacks; Jim Nafziger, left half, and Ted Liljenwall, guard, all of whom were hurt in last Saturday's fray, do not appear likely to get into Saturday's game against the University of Oregon, the coach reported.

Cerdan Victor Over Zale

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — Marcel Cerdan, a laughing Latin from Casablanca, is the new middleweight champion of the world, because he took Tony Zale's body bombs and kept punching.

In the fourth round of last night's title fight at Roosevelt stadium, it looked as though Zale was about to tear apart the 32-year-old Tiger of France. Cerdan winced and blinked his eyes as Tony landed a blockbuster under the heart. But he didn't go down.

That was where Zale lost his title and Cerdan, a product of wartime France, saw the way clear to realizing his lifetime ambition.

Once Zale had shot his heaviest artillery he had nothing left. Cerdan hooked to the head, led with his right, feinted the fading champ into schoolboy errors and trussed him up for the kill.

Zale was a tired old man of 34—dead on his feet and with no zip left in his punches from the fifth round on. Only the fierce pride of a champion kept him off the floor until he collapsed — as the New Jersey official physician said "from exhaustion"—just after the bell ended the 11th round.

The harbor at Tutuila Island, American Samoa, has been called the best and most beautiful in the South Seas.

Raider Squad Still Slim

Upland Junior High school backs are learning how to crack the enemy's line in practice these days. But whether they'll know what to do when they get into the secondary is a question.

With only 18 out for practice, Coach Clyde Frishholz has been unable to field a full defensive team. A seven-man defensive line takes all the players he's got, and doesn't leave anybody to play the backfield spots.

But Clyde doesn't view things too darkly. He likes the spirit his boys have been displaying. Also two more linemen have reported, and two others may check in before long.

The new men are both tackles, Manuel Garcia and Jack Mabe. At the start of things, Clyde could count only one tackle on his whole roster.

The club is practicing daily from 2:30 to 4 in preparation for their opening game Oct. 7, with the Colton 'B's' at Colton.

Pickets May Withdraw Soon

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—CIO longshore pickets were expected to withdraw from the port of Oakland today under an agreement for the removal of commercial cargo piled up on the docks.

A union announcement of the agreement with the City of Oakland made clear the loading or discharge of struck ships is not involved. But the city's wharves and warehouses are to be cleared to make room for army cargo.

Striking longshoremen are handling army cargoes through Pacific ports under contracts between the army and two stevedoring firms not connected with the Waterfront Employers' association.

The association, since the strike started Sept. 2, has refused to negotiate with maritime unless union officers sign non-communist affidavits.

The union's agreement with Oakland, expected to be ratified today, provides pre-strike pay scales for terminal workers and checkers, with any strike-won increases to be made retroactive. Pickets were to withdraw at 1 p.m.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Striking CIO longshoremen have an agreement with school children of Sacramento to return to work—for an hour or so—to unload an elephant.

A shipment of elephants is due here Oct. 9 or 10. One of them, paid for by pennies from school children, is for the Sacramento zoo.

PRETTY PICKLE

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP)—Alphonse Letendre, 21, is in a pretty pickle.

He told a local court yesterday he stole a 40-gallon barrel of tomato pickles from a warehouse. Not liking their flavor, he said, he returned to exchange them for a barrel of dills. Nabbed on the second trip, he was sentenced to six months in jail.

Tokyo Rose To Be Charged

SAN FRANCISCO AP — Treason charges will be filed against Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino, a wartime Tokyo Rose, as soon as she arrives from Japan Saturday, U. S. Dist. Atty. Frank Hennessy said today.

Mrs. D'Aquino will arrive on the transport General Hodges.

The Japanese-American woman, Los Angeles-born and educated, will be transferred from army to justice department custody.

CLUB NOTICES

Methodist Missionary Studies
The second meeting of the Upland Methodist Missionary Study class will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the church parlors. Mrs. Clyde Richards will bring the lesson on Alaska taken from the book "On Our Own Doorstep." Mrs. F. B. Eckes will lead the devotions and Mrs. Hulda Morse will bring a special number in song.
